Press Release

April 7, 2009

On Tuesday, April 07, 2009 at 2:29 PM a vehicle was reported to be travelling westbound in the eastbound lanes of I. S. 90 in the City of Willoughby.

A two car accident resulted on I. S. 90 just west of the S. R. 306 bridge when two eastbound vehicles collided while trying to avoid the wrong way driver.

The two car accident involved a 39 year-old male from North Ridgeville, Ohio, driving a 2003 Dodge and a 25 year-old female from Rochester, New York driving a 1998 Chevrolet. There were no reported injuries.

The wrong way driver did not stop after causing this accident. This driver was described as older white male operating a gold colored, 4-door vehicle, possibly a Saturn. He may have entered the freeway from S.R. 306. It is unknown if he turned around or continued westbound in the eastbound lanes.

This accident is currently under investigation.

If anyone has information concerning this accident please call the Willoughby Police Department at (440) 953-4212.
